Your Struggle

- To make a fair and decent profit
- Techs don't bill all labor, giving "breaks" to customers
- Office is disorganized, can't keep track of service calls and techs
- Keeping techs busy year round

Coolfront Solution

- Set your hourly rates and part markups to deliver pricing based on your repair needs to turn a profit on every repair
- When techs present the price upfront to the customer using our fully-customizable database of flat rate repairs, it ensures full payment at time of collection
- No more paper tickets and bad handwriting—Coolfront works in real time and streamlines the whole process
- Coolfront maintenance agreements ensure there's work to do throughout the year keeping employees and customers happy
